

ADVANSIX PUBLISHES 2017 SUSTAINABILITY REPORTInaugural Report Covers Our People, Our Communities and Our Environment*

Parsippany, N.J., November 14, 2018 – AdvanSix (NYSE: ASIX) today published its inaugural Sustainability Report, demonstrating the company's commitment to ensuring a sustainable future.

“AdvanSix is a diverse and environmentally responsible enterprise that is proud of our work on sustainability,” said Erin Kane, president and CEO of AdvanSix. “This is an exciting opportunity to share information about our commitment to sustainable growth which is critical to our future success. The continued focus on our people, our communities and our environment will help guide that journey.”

Our 2017 Sustainability Report advances a dialogue among employees, customers, suppliers, shareholders and others that will continue in the years ahead. The report provides, among other information, an overview of the company's ethics and governance policies, along with environmental performance and initiatives over the past five years. The Sustainability Report is available now on the company's website.

About AdvanSix

AdvanSix is a leading manufacturer of Nylon 6, a polymer resin which is a synthetic material used by our customers to produce engineered plastics, fibers, filaments and films that, in turn, are used in such end-products as automotive and electronic components, carpets, sports apparel, fishing nets and food and industrial packaging. As a result of our backward integration and the configuration of our manufacturing facilities, we also sell caprolactam, ammonium sulfate fertilizer, acetone and other intermediate chemicals, all of which are produced as part of our Nylon 6 integrated manufacturing chain.
