

ADVANSIX COMMITTED TO GROWTH INVESTMENT IN CITY OF HOPEWELL

Parsippany, N.J. and Hopewell, Va., May 29, 2019 – AdvanSix (NYSE: ASIX), the City of Hopewell, Virginia and the Economic Development Authority of the City of Hopewell announced today that AdvanSix will be investing in growth and optimization initiatives at its Hopewell facility. In connection with the company’s continued investment and recent job creation at the facility, the City of Hopewell and its Economic Development Authority have granted certain property tax incentives to the company.

“AdvanSix is committed to long-term, proactive citizenship in our communities. Since 2016 when AdvanSix was formed, we have created nearly 100 new technical and operations jobs at our Hopewell site,” said Fred Harry, Hopewell Plant Manager. “Our team is also excited about the robust pipeline of growth projects and investments at Hopewell that will increase efficiency and output at our facility, optimize quality for our customers and help us provide ongoing opportunity for local employees and partners.”

Hopewell’s Assistant City Manager Charles Dane said they are excited to continue their long-standing relationship with the Company, “This significant investment and increased jobs are huge for our community. AdvanSix and its employees have been active members in the Hopewell community for decades, giving back through participation in a wide range of organizations. This project helps sustain a continued presence in Hopewell of this great corporate citizen. We look forward to the many benefits of this agreement for our local community.”

“This is an exciting win for the City of Hopewell and the Gateway Region. It is a true testament to Hopewell's ability to attract and retain high caliber companies,” said Keith Boswell, President and CEO of Virginia's Gateway Region. “Manufacturing, and specifically Chemical Manufacturing, is the heart of the region’s industry sector.

Virginia's Gateway Region is proud to have AdvanSix on its corporate roster, and we look forward to their many years of continued growth.”

More than 750 people currently work at AdvanSix’s Hopewell facility, which has been operating since the 1920s. The company and its employees are involved in a wide range of community organizations including the Hopewell/Prince George’s Chamber of Commerce, the Hopewell Downtown Partnership, John Randolph Foundation and its employees volunteer in Hopewell City Schools and other local organizations.

The facility is one of the world’s largest single-site producers of caprolactam and ammonium sulfate. Caprolactam is the building block for Nylon 6 resin, which is used in carpets, automotive components, food and industrial packaging and other products, and ammonium sulfate, which is a nitrogen fertilizer used by growers to increase crop yields.

About AdvanSix

AdvanSix is a leading manufacturer of Nylon 6, a polymer resin which is a synthetic material used by our customers to produce engineered plastics, fibers, filaments and films that, in turn, are used in such end-products as automotive and electronic components, carpets, sports apparel, fishing nets and food and industrial packaging. As a result of our backward integration and the configuration of our manufacturing facilities, we also sell caprolactam, ammonium sulfate fertilizer, acetone and other intermediate chemicals, all of which are produced as part of our Nylon 6 integrated manufacturing chain. More information on AdvanSix can be found at <http://www.advansix.com>.

Forward Looking Statements

This release contains certain statements that may be deemed “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, that address activities, events or developments that our management intends, expects, projects, believes or anticipates will or may occur in the future are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements may be identified by words like “expect,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “outlook,” “project,” “strategy,” “intend,” “plan,” “target,” “goal,” “may,” “will,” “should” and “believe” or other variations or similar terminology. Although we believe forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions, such statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are beyond our control and difficult to predict, which may cause the actual results or performance of the company to be materially different from any future results or performance expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: general economic and financial conditions in the U.S. and globally; growth rates and cyclicity of the industries we serve; the impact of scheduled turnarounds and significant unplanned downtime and interruptions of production or logistics operations as a result of mechanical issues or other unanticipated events such as fires, severe weather conditions, and natural disasters; price fluctuations and supply of raw materials; our operations requiring substantial capital; risks associated with our indebtedness including with respect to restrictive covenants; failure to develop and commercialize new products or technologies; loss of significant customer relationships; adverse trade and tax policies; extensive environmental, health and safety laws that apply to our operations; hazards associated with chemical manufacturing, storage and transportation; litigation associated with chemical manufacturing and our business operations generally; inability to acquire and integrate businesses, assets, products or technologies; protection of our intellectual property and proprietary information; prolonged work stoppages as a result of labor difficulties; cybersecurity and data privacy incidents; failure to maintain effective internal controls; disruptions in transportation and logistics; our inability to achieve some or all of the anticipated benefits of the spin-off from Honeywell including uncertainty regarding qualification for expected tax treatment; fluctuations in our stock price; and changes in laws or regulations applicable to our business. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this release. Such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and actual results, developments and business decisions may differ from those envisaged by such forward-looking statements. We identify the principal risks and uncertainties that affect our performance in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018.

#

Contacts:

Media

Debra Lewis
(973) 526-1767

debra.lewis@advansix.com

Investors

Adam Kressel
(973) 526-1700

adam.kressel@advansix.com