

September 12, 2018

Earlier today, AdvanSix met with members of the union representing workers in the Hopewell North bargaining unit from the company's Hopewell plant. The teams exchanged proposals related to bargaining for the contract that expires on October 4.

The teams plan to continue formal negotiations next week. Updates will be posted to this website daily beginning Monday.