

September 18, 2018

Advansix and members of the union representing workers in the Hopewell North bargaining unit from the company's Hopewell plant resumed discussions this morning and continued talking into the evening. Each team answered questions and clarified elements of their proposals.

The teams plan to continue negotiations Wednesday, and updates will be posted to this website.