

September 21, 2018

The teams representing AdvanSix and the workers in the Hopewell North bargaining unit from the company's Hopewell plant met this morning to continue negotiations on the contract that expires October 4. Following brief discussions, the teams decided to break and resume negotiations on October 1.

We will post updates to this website.